MARRIAGE AND SUICIDE

YOUNG ADVENTURER ENDS HIS WORTHLESS LIFE

Contracted Secret Marriage While Another Wife Was Living—His Career in the Philippines.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Harry J. Ziegler, a young adventurer, formerly of Lancaster, Pa., shot his wife, a Chicago woman, this afternoon in a room at the Westminster Hotel, then went a bullet through his own brain, and died instantly. Mrs. Ziegler lived until about midnight.

Mrs. Ziegler was Miss Anna Adams, daughter of Samuel P. Adams, a wealthy paint manufacturer. Behind the crime is a story of marriage against parental protests, clandestine meetings and correspondence, the existence of a former wife, Miss Harriet Baker, in Lancaster, and the haunting fear of serious consequences. These combined provide the explanation of the tragedy. The couple registered at the hotel at noon. At 2:45 o'clock Clerk Cone heard the call-board signal persistently. As the bell boy neared the room the door was thrown open and a woman scantly clad rushed out crying: "He's shot me. Send for the doctor, quick!" Blood was streaming from a bullet hole at the base of her skull, but she had not lost consciousness.

The young man is a son of William Ziegler, station master of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad at Lancaster. There he was known as an adventurer. His family last heard from him in the island of Luzon about a year ago. He had gone to the Philippines in the Army and had joined the Hospital Corps.

While a boy Ziegler married Miss Harriet Baker, who still lives in Lancaster, though they have been separated for years. She said last night that she had been informed of his secret marriage in Chicago, and had planned to institute divorce proceedings. Something of this former marriage was known to Anna Adams, but not to the other members of her family. Ziegler, however, is supposed to have feared prosecution, not rightly divining the intent of his other wife.

The romance which culminated in the shooting dates back to September, 1901, when Ziegler first met Anna Adams. He had returned from Manila in the fall, and soon after went to Adams' house to answer an advertisement for an attendant for her aged father. Despite the suspicions of some of the family, he was employed and remained in charge of Mr. Adams until about two weeks ago. Miss Adams, many years his senior, became infatuated with the young man, and they were married some time before last Christmas.

PRECIOUS BABIES.

Mother's comfort. Father's delight. God's dearest earthly gift to man. What a happy sight; the healthy, robust vigorous, rollicking, always the same baby. What a sad sight; the puny, blue and pale, restless, crying baby. Nine out of ten times the child is troubled with worms. It shows it in convulsions, spasms, colic. And ten times out of ten Kickapoo Indian Worm Killer will drive out the pesky life-eating worms. It is nature's remedy and as the healthy child is the natural child, it must make the sickly child healthy. The Indians living close to nature, discovered the remedy. For centuries they used it to make their babies rugged, powerful, fearless. What it has done for the child of the forest it will do for the child of the civilized-cure. That is what it has been doing for years. You can get it of your druggist for 25 cents. Be sure and get the genuine. The child's life is too precious to trifle with worthless substitutes. Hobron Drug Co., agents for the Kickapoo Indian Remedies.

ENORMOUS CANE YIELD.

Hilo, Feb. 6.—On a knoll back of the residence of J. F. Clay an acre of cane was surveyed by S. G. Walker and set to
